

La diversità ci fa diventare tutti uguali

A top-down view of a group of children sitting in a circle on a light-colored tiled floor. The children are wearing various colorful pants and socks. The socks are of many different colors and patterns, including solid colors, stripes, polka dots, and cartoon characters like Spider-Man. The children's hands are visible, some resting on their knees or the floor. The text "i nostri calzini spaiati" is written in green, italicized font in the center of the image.
